SPECIFIC COMMENTS:

Please describe what you like best about the school/school district you are reviewing:

We have had a lot of upheaval in Huntsville. But I have been very happy since my boys started AAA. They are very welcoming to all children.

The school itself and the school personnel are top notch. However, I don't have anything good to say about the Department of Special Ed administrative personnel.

Please describe what you like least about the school/school district you are reviewing:

All the politics and backstabbing. Not keeping parents informed of changes.

We have found it necessary to hire an advocate and spend a lot of money, in order for my child to receive the services she needs.

What changes would you like to see made at the school/school district you are reviewing:

A real open door policy. Special needs ahead of sports.

There are too many special ed students in this school, particularly in a certain location of the school. I believe it is segregation and therefore against the law.

What specific problems, if any, have you encountered with this school/school district:

As I said, not telling us they were going to merge our kids this year. For me, it has been a prayer answered.

Not enough aides in the classroom. Not enough one-on-one aides, which is a district-wide issue.

AAA Academy Academics and Arts

Is there anything else you would like other parents to know about this school/school district:

Always stay informed no matter where your kids go.

Extremely poor planning and communication to parents about issues which affect our children.
