Close to home.

My child was never given the accommodations she needed. Teachers are insensitive to children with special needs.

Special needs kids need to be accommodated per their individual needs. "One size fits all" theory needs to change.

Teacher was too difficult to deal with. The IEP team failed to provide needed accommodations.

Is there anything else you would like other parents to know about this school/school district:

Principal needs to make major changes and hire staff that understands our kids.
