SPECIFIC COMMENTS:

Please describe what you like best about the school/school district you are reviewing:

Good teachers

Please describe what you like least about the school/school district you are reviewing:

They seem to focus on what my child can't do, and don't always consider new ways of doing things unless we ask. There is no way for us to be involved in school as volunteers, even in the resource room or on field trips or in library, so we don't know what goes on at the school.

What changes would you like to see made at the school/school district you are reviewing:

More pro-actively try to include children with disabilities in all aspects of school life, clubs, morning announcements, after school activities, lunchroom, peer mentoring. Kids with disabilities sit at their own table in the lunch room next to the aides. They are not encouraged to interact with other students.

What specific problems, if any, have you encountered with this school/school district:

Low expectations.

Is there anything else you would like other parents to know about this school/school district:

Overall, the school is a safe, encouraging environment, and the teachers are excellent. I think the expectations are high for the regular students. I feel expectations for my child could be much higher.
