SPECIFIC COMMENTS:

Please describe what you like best about the school/school district you are reviewing:

Please note, my son is four and still in the preschool program so this is a review of the integrated preschool. The teachers are fabulous and genuinely care about my son and his development. They are always able to make the time to talk to me or schedule meetings if I have any questions or concerns. They are very open to our feedback about how to promote our son's progress. Most importantly, he has absolutely thrived and made outstanding social gains which is his primary area of developmental need. We also receive very detailed daily notes and they have even gotten my picky eater to try a lot of new foods at lunchtime.

Please describe what you like least about the school/school district you are reviewing:

There is really nothing I can say I do not like but we're still in preschool.

What changes would you like to see made at the school/school district you are reviewing:

Again, I probably don't have enough experience to comment on this.

What specific problems, if any, have you encountered with this school/school district:

None yet, but we haven't gotten to kindergarten so I can't comment on what kind of services they will give us going forward.

Is there anything else you would like other parents to know about this school/school district:

The public preschool in Homewood has been amazing to our family. The changes in my son have been profound. I would not hesitate to recommend it to any family. And from what I have heard from other parents, they have continued to have positive outcomes and experiences at Hall Kent and elsewhere in Homewood once their children got to kindergarten. I would be happy to fill this out again once my son gets to kindergarten as well.
