SPECIFIC COMMENTS:

Please describe what you like best about the school/school district you are reviewing:

My grandson really enjoyed being around the other children and some of the teachers.

Please describe what you like least about the school/school district you are reviewing:

No behavioral therapy. Had a hard time getting them to get foods for a picky eater. Seemed like supervision was lacking.

What changes would you like to see made at the school/school district you are reviewing:

More teacher training for autistic children. Behavioral therapy and help understanding the autistic child.

What specific problems, if any, have you encountered with this school/school district:

My grandson was hurt twice in less than 3 weeks and no one knew what happened.

Is there anything else you would like other parents to know about this school/school district:

This school really needs more training for its staff and more staff so the children can be supervised better.
