SPECIFIC COMMENTS:

Please describe what you like best about the school/school district you are reviewing:

Communication. There is a wonderful degree of communication and I have ready access to all his teachers.

Please describe what you like least about the school/school district you are reviewing:

Sometimes it seems I have to really push to get a point across.

What changes would you like to see made at the school/school district you are reviewing:

More teachers. More autism educated teachers.

What specific problems, if any, have you encountered with this school/school district:

His very first kindergarten teacher didn't know how to handle him and made the suggestion that he would fall behind and that my son would not follow directions. No other teacher has had this problem.

Is there anything else you would like other parents to know about this school/school district:

The principal and staff at JES are awesome!
