SPECIFIC COMMENTS:

Please describe what you like best about the school/school district you are reviewing:

They have listened to MY suggestions for my son's education and have implemented the actions I requested.

Please describe what you like least about the school/school district you are reviewing:

I am REGULARLY reminded that my son is not at his "home school" by the Special Education Specialist from the Board of Education.

What changes would you like to see made at the school/school district you are reviewing:

I can't think of any at this time.

What specific problems, if any, have you encountered with this school/school district:

The continual push to return him to his home school.

Is there anything else you would like other parents to know about this school/school district:

The Special Education Department overall has listened and has been respectful of my wishes for my son. Pretty much the accommodations I requested have been done.
