SPECIFIC COMMENTS:

Please describe what you like best about the school/school district you are reviewing:

Verbal behavior program, data collections methods, inclusion methods.

Please describe what you like least about the school/school district you are reviewing:

Trying to “cookie cutter” the programs for all special education students.

What changes would you like to see made at the school/school district you are reviewing:

Consistency with each new school year...starting from square one each year is hard on the students.

What specific problems, if any, have you encountered with this school/school district:

They have been wonderful with all modifications and concerns.

Is there anything else you would like other parents to know about this school/school district:

This district is fair to all sides! The special education director is knowledgeable and up to date on current research. She honestly wants the best for our kids. The school has been open to training their staff and learning how to individualize each program for each student.
