SPECIFIC COMMENTS:

Please describe what you like best about the school/school district you are reviewing:

His special education teacher is great!

Please describe what you like least about the school/school district you are reviewing:

Feel as if the special ed teachers are responsible for too many children and cannot adequately assist them.

What changes would you like to see made at the school/school district you are reviewing:

Hire additional special education teachers and increase education of the general education teachers regarding special needs.

What specific problems, if any, have you encountered with this school/school district:

Starting to experience some bullying by classmates/peers in the form of making fun of my child. I feel like it is not a high priority for the school as if there was bullying.

Is there anything else you would like other parents to know about this school/school district:

No.
