SPECIFIC COMMENTS:

Please describe what you like best about the school/school district you are reviewing:

They are patient with my child.

Please describe what you like least about the school/school district you are reviewing:

They do not have the resources to provide extra tutoring to get my son where he needs to be.

What changes would you like to see made at the school/school district you are reviewing:

Extra tutoring for subjects my child struggles with.

What specific problems, if any, have you encountered with this school/school district:

Lack of communication.

Is there anything else you would like other parents to know about this school/school district:

Overall, it is a good school. They definitely have their share of problems as all schools do. As far as the lack of communication, as long as you are persistent with them they will respond. You just generally have to start the communication.
